

KARANT CANINES

Before you order your custom artwork of your canine companions, we would recommend that you consider what images you would most enjoy in your living environment. Think about your space and in which rooms you might like to showcase the selected prints. What images would look best with your existing artwork? Are you more interested in groupings or a few larger images? Do you want something abstract or literal, to tell a story, or have an image look like a Warhol? Would you prefer matted prints with traditional frames or gallery wraps, or a collection of unusual vintage frames to show off your unique pictures of your dogs? There are many options available and this price list just reviews some basics. We are happy to assist you in assembling groupings of photos or of larger murals, which take the imagery beyond the conventions of traditional "pet photography." Many things change in the cropping and processing of your imagery. Let your presentation of your dogs be as unique as your canine companions are. We think their individuality shines through in their portraits; let your selections and sequencing enhance the photographs even further.

Press Printed Books

Our press printed books are designed to feature your dog in his or her very own book. They include bookstore quality printing, binding and covers. There is a selection of cover types and book sizing and your book will be very graphic and elegantly composed using the images from your photo shoot. The books can be either hardcover with a dust jacket, ImageWrap or softcover, each with it's own singular and professional look.

Special Mounting + Presentation

Our specialty prints can be either matted, framed, float, gallery or plaque mounted. A float wrap is similar to gallery wrap but it is unique, as the images appear to be standing out from the wall. The images are wrapped around masonite, which in turn is attached to a block, which extends the print off the wall.

5x7	$30	$40	$55
8x10	$40	$55	$65
